SENATOR DEMUZIO:

Well, thank you, Mr. President. Here at 5:18 in the evening, on this wonderful day in May, May the 17th, we have history in the making, not because we are here. One of our House Members just turned fifty years of age today, Representative Tom Ryder, who's standing behind me, and I'm sure he's embarrassed, and didn't want anybody to know, but I want to say, happy -- happy fiftieth birthday to him today.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR WEAVER)

Happy birthday. It's 4:15, Senator Demuzio. For what purpose does Senator Wendell Jones arise?

SENATOR W. JONES:

Mr. President, Members of the Senate, a point of personal privilege.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR WEAVER)

State your point.

SENATOR W. JONES:

I have five people in the audience I'd like to introduce, in the President's Gallery. I'd like to introduce Marion and George Lingel - George is the business manager in District 15 in Palatine; Donna Baiocchi, who is Chairman of ED-RED; and my brother and his wife, Norm and Pat Jones.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR WEAVER)

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Is there any discussion? This is final action, Ladies and Gentlemen. The question is, shall the Senate concur in House Amendment No. 1 to Senate Bill 734. All those in favor will vote Aye. Opposed will vote Nay. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish?

Take the record. On that question, there are 58 Ayes, no Nays, none voting Present. And the Senate does concur in House Amendment No. 1 to Senate Bill 734, and the bill, having received the required constitutional majority, is declared passed. In the middle of page 19, in the Order of Secretary's Desk, Concurrence on Senate Bills, is Senate Bill 1107. Senator Radogno. Madam
Secretary, read the motion.

ACTING SECRETARY HAWKER:

I move to concur with the House in the adoption of their Amendment No. 1 to Senate Bill 1107.

Filed by Senator Radogno.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Senator Radogno.

SENATOR RADOGNO:

Thank you, Mr. President. This amendment deletes the effective date on this bill.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Any -- is there any discussion? Senator Hawkinson.

SENATOR HAWKINSON:

Thank you, Mr. President. Maybe the sponsor would just give a brief explanation of what the bill, as it left this Chamber, did so that the Members would understand the effect of the amendment.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

A good -- good suggestion, Senator Hawkinson. Senator Radogno.

SENATOR RADOGNO:

Thank you. This was an administration bill. It simply clarified that individuals over -- only individuals over eighteen who are entering a nursing home facility must be prescreened.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Is there any further discussion? If not, the question is, shall the Senate concur in House Amendment No. 1 to Senate Bill 1107. All those in favor will vote Aye. Opposed will vote Nay. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Take the record. On that question, there are 57 Ayes, no Nays, none voting Present. And the Senate does concur in House Amendment No. 1 to Senate Bill 1107, and the bill, having received the required constitutional majority, is declared passed. On the top of page 20, in the Order of Secretary's Desk, Concurrence on Senate Bills, is Senate Bill 1183. Senator Sieben. Madam Secretary, read the motion, please.

ACTING SECRETARY HAWKER:

I move to concur with the House in the adoption of their Amendment No. 1 to Senate Bill 1183.

Filed by Senator Sieben.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Senator Sieben.

SENATOR SIEBEN:

Thank you very much, Mr. President. This is the legislation initiative through the Attorney General's Office to codify the tobacco settlement. This puts into place the requirements of that lawsuit that will bring 9.1 billion dollars to the State of Illinois over the -- over the next twenty-five years. In the final analysis, once it got to the House and everybody proofread it, they found, I think, about three or four very technical, minor corrections that needed to be in there to satisfy the attorneys for the tobacco industry. I know of no objection, and I ask for an Aye vote.

8

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Is there any discussion? Senator Welch. Patrick Welch.

SENATOR WELCH:

I have a question of the sponsor.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Sponsor indicates he will yield. Senator Welch.

SENATOR WELCH:

Senator Sieben, my analysis says that the bill establishes a new tax on tobacco product manufacturers who choose not to participate in the Master Settlement Agreement. Are we imposing a new tax here on -- on individuals, and if so, what is it?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Senator Sieben.

SENATOR SIEBEN:

Certainly, we're not with the amendment. Just -- we're just doing the technical corrections necessary in the bill. The underlying bill that left the Senate did -- the underlying bill that left the Senate did have some provisions for a company that chose not to participate in the Settlement Agreement. And they were put in there, it's my understanding, to act as a -- a very strong incentive for each of the tobacco companies to participate in this Settlement Agreement. But that -- that was in the underlying bill that we voted on some time ago.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Further discussion? Senator Cullerton.

SENATOR CULLERTON:

Yes. Would the sponsor yield?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Sponsor indicates he will yield. Senator Cullerton.

SENATOR CULLERTON:

Senator, in this bill do we say anything at all about the legal fees that are to be paid to the law firms that represented the State of Illinois or the County of Cook in the lawsuit?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Senator Sieben.

SENATOR SIEBEN:

No.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Senator Cullerton.

SENATOR CULLERTON:

If you know, could you tell me when those decisions and how those decisions as to legal fees are to be made?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Senator Sieben.

SENATOR SIEBEN:

Staff advises me that that's being handled by the Attorney General's Office.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Senator Cullerton.

SENATOR CULLERTON:

Well, what if the Legislature disagreed with the Attorney General with regard to how much and to whom the legal fees should be paid -- not to whom, but rather how much legal fees should be paid? Would a statute like this have to be drafted in order to change that, or, if you know, is there some kind of arbitration that determines the amount of the legal fees?

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Senator Sieben.

SENATOR SIEBEN:

I understand -- I understand your question. I -- I don't believe that is the -- the -- the fees and schedules are embodied in the underlying bill that deals with the settlement agreement, and I believe that issue would have to be discussed by the 10

91ST GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Attorney General, himself. And how they would handle legislatively or the appropriation process to -- to make those payments to the fees, I think that's another issue, not relevant to what, obviously, what the amendment's dealing with here. But your -- your -- your question is -- is pertinent, but I think it's a matter to be discussed with the Attorney General's Office.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Senator Cullerton.

SENATOR CULLERTON:

Well, Senator, I just want -- I want to kind of put us all on notice that we should be very careful when we look at how much money is to be paid to the law firms with regard to this settlement, because I have heard that it's -- it's a -- it's a -- it's a fee that's to be paid based on a contingency basis, which is an enormous fee, which is not -- in any way related to the amount of work that was done on the case. And if there's anything in this statute, and you've assured me that that's not the case, but I want to be very clear on this, that there's nothing in this bill that we are at final passage on, which ratifies or authorizes those fees to be paid. I want to make real clear that that's the case, because this is very important.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Senator Sieben.

SENATOR SIEBEN:

Yes. That is correct. Your comments, Senator Cullerton, are correct, and I certainly share your concern about the size of the fees that will be paid for the work that was done to deal with this settlement. A point well made.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Any further discussion? If not, the question is, shall the Senate concur in House Amendment No. 1 to Senate Bill 1183. All those in favor will vote Aye. Opposed will vote Nay. The voting is open. Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Have all voted who wish? Take the record. On that question, there are 56 Ayes, no Nays, none voting Present. And the Senate does concur in House Amendment No. 1 to Senate Bill 1183, and the bill, having received the required constitutional majority, is declared passed. ...leave, we will return back to the middle of page 15, in the Order of Secretary's Desk, Concurrence, House Bills, to -- excuse me, Senate Bills, to Senate Bill 541. Senator Dillard. Madam Secretary, read the motion.

ACTING SECRETARY HAWKER:

I move to concur with the House in the adoption of their Amendment No. 1 to Senate Bill 541.

Filed by Senator Dillard.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Senator Dillard.

SENATOR DILLARD:

Thank you, Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate. As this bill left this Chamber, and even as it was amended by the House, it's a bill dealing with hospital record retention and confidentiality of those records and, in limited instances, where the information can be disclosed. It's an initiative of the Illinois Hospital Association and codifies recommendations by the American Hospital Association for holding on to records. The House of Representatives added one technical amendment, and that just says that any person who, in good faith, somehow inadvertently gives out these records, there is no type of civil or criminal liability. So the House amendment is technical in nature, and I think this bill is noncontroversial.

PRESIDING OFFICER: (SENATOR DUDYCZ)

Is there any discussion? If not, the question is, shall the Senate concur in House Amendment No. 1 to Senate Bill 541. All those in favor will vote Aye. Opposed will vote Nay. The voting
